Last Man Standing

National Football League 2017

RULES

Entry Fee: £10

You must select one team to win in each round; you may only select each team once. You must select a different team each round. If your team loses or draws you are out. Fixtures will be taken from Division 1 of the National Football League only. All entries must be made before round 1 of the league, any entries received after the first game will be void. In the event that more than 3 people are still standing after the final round of league fixtures, remaining people will be asked to make a selection for the league semi-finals and final if needed. Decision of the committee in charge is final.
